Course Student Learning Objective	Course Assessments
Summarize scientific literature about human disease and assess a paper's limitations.	5Q assignments, disease profiles, group presentations
Explain the effect of human disease from the molecular, cellular, tissue, and patient population levels.	disease profiles, group presentations, in-class discussion
Create accurate and engaging presentations scaled to a specific audience.	solo and group presentations
Compare writing within biology to writing about disease biology for those outside the discipline.	in-class discussions