She gave good feedback on exams and was always very helpful in class, chiming in with smart/helpful comments. I also really liked her lectures during the second–to–last week of class. She is clearly very knowledgeable as well and does a great job at explaining concepts/terms/procedures.
Her smart and kind demeanor made her easily approachable for any confusion in class. If she was ever unsure of my question, she'd make sure to clarify what the point of contention was so that we could communicate effectively and not talk past each other. She taught the section on the judiciary with a clear passion and freely admitted the (rare) times she didn't know the exact answer to any question.
In depth feedback on tests.
She's very patient and good at explaining topics that are hard to understand.
She is very knowledgeable and dynamic. I loved her guest lecture on the courts.
Kaleigh was always helpful and pleasant to interact with, bringing her knowledge to the table to aid students in their learning.
She was willing break things down for you when you are confused by class discussion. Also, she is transparent about how she would grade things on the essay.
She was very helpful in office hours and generally very nice

Nothing that I can think of. Kaleigh did a great job.
I think maybe her summarizing of long lecture points would make her teaching better.
Slowing down the pace of lectures
